

SURVIVAL ITALIAN COURSE ON SATURDAY

JULY – AUGUST 2015

“Survival Italian” is designed as a survival language course with an emphasis on developing the necessary language skills to handle frequent, everyday situations encountered while staying in Italy, and getting students started in Italian.

The course is informal, free and open to everyone (students, employees, and Italian culture and language lovers).

Students will develop basic receptive skills (listening and reading) and basic expressions to communicate in an Italian context. In this short course students will pick up the language they need for most everyday situations –from meeting and greeting people to asking directions and buying food and drinks – and get a flavor of Italian Life!

The course is offered each Saturday for 2 hours, from 10.00 to 12.00 a.m. Coffee break with the teacher.

The course is confirmed with a minimum of 4 students enrolled.

Price 18 Euros each student, each lesson. For 4 Saturdays 72 euros (including didactic materials )

The course is held at CIAO ITALIA – Via delle Frasche 5 (Via dei Serpenti) - Roma
